DATE: January 17, 2014

SUBJECT: First Week of 2014 Legislative Session

The Georgia General Assembly began the 2014 Legislative Session Monday of this week, proving the rumors of a quick legislative session to be true. Here's a brief recap of some highlights from this week down at the Capitol:

Proposed FY2015 Budget: Governor Nathan Deal presented his budget on Wednesday with his State of the State Address, emphasizing his proposed plan to put $547 million into the K-12 education budget, which equates to more than 80 percent of new state spending. In addition, the Governor proposed:

- $7.4 million in new funding for the Division of Family and Child Services over the next three years to hire new caseworkers
- $12.5 million allocated to renovate the old DOT building in Atlanta
- $35 million increase to the Savannah Harbor Expansion Project
- $97 million increase to Medicaid and PeachCare for Kids, as well as $101.3 million for new expenses related to the Affordable Care Act
- A proposed $8 million for correctional officer raises as part of an incentive program
- $12 million increase on emergency medical flights in Southwest Georgia
- $37.27 million has been allocated to prison repairs and security updates
- Juvenile Justice facilities will see $42.8 million in bond funding for repairs and renovations, including $25 million to replace two aging facilities.
- $4.5 million increase to technical colleges
- $25 million in new economic development efforts

FY2014 Supplemental Budgets: The supplemental budgets were heard on Thursday of this week via departmental presentations. The amended 2014 budget is expected to be out of the Appropriations Committee on Wednesday and voted on by Friday of next week.

Good job by all team members for keeping the supplemental rebate (Medicaid) out of the budget! We would like to call that a win.

HB 310: HB 310 was passed today, moving state and partisan county primaries to the same day, from July to May 20. This reaffirms the rumors that 2014 will be a short Legislative Session, as legislatures have a shorter amount of time to campaign. We are expected to be out by St. Patrick's Day, if not shortly after.

Guns: HB 35 will again be a topic of discussion this session and we will closely monitor its progress. Sponsored by Rep. Paul Battles (R - Cartersville), this bill would allow school boards to designate any number of school employees to carry concealed weapons. While providing some training criteria, the legislation leaves most of the decision making up to local authorities. The committee process brought resolution to issues dealing with liability coverage, background checks, and potential penalties for refusing to comply with such an act from a school board. HB 512 will also be on our radar, as it would allow Georgians with a weapons permit to carry guns into churches, parts of college campuses and bars.

The Georgia General Assembly will be in recess until Tuesday, January 21, 2014. The Senate will begin at 10:00 and the House will begin at 11:00.

HB310	A BILL to be entitled an Act to amend Chapter 5 of Title 21 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, relating to ethics in government, so as to revise definitions; to provide for the method of filing certain disclosure reports; to provide for the method of notifying candidates of late fees due; to eliminate the grace period on certain reports; to provide for the notice of dissolution of a campaign or committee; to provide an effective date; to repeal conflicting laws; and for other	(1) Wilkins on, Joe 52nd	HC: Ethics SC: Ethics	Status Summary Jan/14/201 4 - Senate Passed/Ado pted By Substitute	HB 310 would move state and partisan county primaries to the same day, from July to May 20. That complies with a federal judge's order so that ballots from overseas members of the military have time to be counted in any runoff. The bill would also require all candidates to file a campaign finance report on March 31. That date, however, would appear to be mostly aimed at unelected challengers because incumbent state officials cannot raise money during the 40-day legislative session, according to the AJC. With little or no fundraising to report, incumbents would have little to disclose by March 31. HB 310 passed on Friday, January 17, 2014.
