Legislation on High Paying Jobs (HB 868)

As a part of Governor Nathan Deal's competitiveness initiative, Administration Floor Leader Doug Collins (R - Gainesville) has introduced HB 868. Among other provisions, HB 868 expands the state's current job creation incentives to include companies in the alternative, biomedical manufacturing, and electric vehicles industries. The legislation also lowers the employee threshold to qualify for the credits in certain geographic areas in Georgia. The new limits would be as low as two in rural areas and 10 in urban areas. Finally, while the legislation doesn't affect credit amounts in rural areas, it does increase the credits in in more stable urban counties from $1,250 annually to $2,000 annually for five years. The Atlanta Journal Constitution discusses the legislation in this article.
